DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Comment

Examiner acknowledges the cancellation of Claim 22.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 18, 20, 21, 23-29, 31 and 32 are allowed over the prior art of record.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention is allowable for at least the following reasons where the prior art of record fails to teach in combination a granule distributing apparatus comprised of a container having a discharge opening for a product to be scattered and distributed with a duct member which is connected to the discharge opening where a distribution chamber is provided by the connection and the duct member is foldable between working and storage positions so that in the working position the duct member protrudes away from the container to permit a dispensable product to flow through the discharge opening and a distribution channel and in the storage position, the duct member closes the discharge opening and extends over the top of the container.

The prior art of record also fails to teach in combination where a locking member is manipulated operative to located the duct member in the working position and closes the distal entry end of the distribution channel when the duct member is in the storage position and locking member, duct member and a duct connector for a cap that covers a top of the container when the duct member is in the storage position where the cap member components serve to shed water from the container when the cap member components form the cap member.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

Rejection under 35 USC § 102

Applicant's arguments, see the amendment filed 07/10/2008 with respect to the rejection of claims 20, 21, 23-29, 31 and 32 held under 35 USC § 102 (b) have been considered and are persuasive. The rejection of Claims 20, 21, 23-39, 31 and 32 has been withdrawn in view of Applicant's amendment to Claim 31 which was previously indicated as appearing to be allowable provided the limitations of the preceding and intervening claims were incorporated into Claims 31. Applicant has amended the allowable subject matter to include the features of the previous intervening claims and Examiner has carefully considered the prior art and has determined that Claims 20, 21, 23-29, 31 and 32 are patentably distinguishable over the prior art of record.

Applicant's amendment to Claim 31 and discussion of the claimed features by contrast to the art of record is persuasive. In view of the foregoing and the absence of additional art, the reasons for allowance although clear for the record are detailed above. As a result, Examiner is withdrawing the rejection of Claims 20, 21, 23-29, 31 and 32 held under 35 USC § 102 (b).

Rejection under 35 USC § 103

Applicant's arguments, see the amendment filed 07/10/2008 with respect to the rejection of claims 18 held under 35 USC § 103 (a) have been considered and are persuasive. The rejection of Claim 18 has been withdrawn in view of Applicant's amendment to Claim 31 which was previously indicated as appearing to be allowable provided the limitations of the preceding and intervening claims were incorporated into Claims 31. Applicant has amended the allowable subject matter to include the features of the previous intervening claims and Examiner has carefully considered the prior art and has determined that Claim 18 are patentably distinguishable over the prior art of record as Claims 18 now depends from allowable Claim 31.

Applicant's amendment to Claim 31 and discussion of the claimed features by contrast to the art of record is persuasive. In view of the foregoing and the absence of additional art, the reasons for allowance although clear for the record are detailed below. As a result, Examiner is withdrawing the rejection of Claim 18 held under 35 USC § 103 (a).
